Case No. _____

JOINT PARENTING AGREEMENT

_____ and _____ each agrees and enters into the following Joint Parenting Agreement as a part of this Judgment relative to their child/children, who are as follows:

_____ d/o/b _____
_____ d/o/b _____
_____ d/o/b _____

stating and acknowledging:

- a) The residential circumstance of each parent favors an award of joint custody;
- b) _____ and _____ possess the ability to cooperate effectively and consistently with each other towards the children's best interests;
- c) The maximum involvement and cooperation of both parents regarding the children's physical, mental, moral and emotional well being is in the children's best interests.

1) EDUCATION

- a) Both parents shall exercise their best efforts to agree on any changes in the school which the children will attend. In the event the parties are not able to agree with regard to this issue, _____ shall have the final say in determining the school each child will attend.
- b) Each parent shall take the necessary actions with the school authorities of the schools in which each child is enrolled to:
  - i) List each parent as the children's parent.
  - ii) To direct each school and day care which each child attends at all times hereafter to release to the other parent any and all information concerning each child pursuant to and in accordance with Section 10-21.8 of the School Code, 105 I.L.C.S. 5/10-21.8
  - iii) To insure that each parent receives copies of any Notices regarding each child which are not forwarded by the school or day care pursuant to Section 3.a.(ii) hereof.
