

Judge Jack D. Davis, II
REMOTE HEARING INSTRUCTIONS

Remote hearings set by the Court: All participants, including attorneys and self-represented litigants, shall appear at the remote hearing by Zoom or by telephone. If you do not have a computer, you may call into the proceeding using one of the telephone numbers listed below. You must log into the Zoom meeting within 5 minutes of the start time or you may be refused admittance.

Requests for Remote Appearances: Not all requests for remote hearings will be honored. Some cases/hearings are presumed ineligible for remote appearances and/or some hearings will require all parties to appear in person. If you are requesting a hearing be conducted remotely, you must first contact the Court or the Court's assistant directly, or file a motion, sending a courtesy copy to the Court. While Courts are to liberally approve requests for remote appearances, do not presume your request will automatically be granted. Certain restrictions and/or technical limitations may apply.

NOTE: If your request is granted, you must further comply with Administrative Order 23-2 regarding notice to other parties. The party noticing up the hearing must also provide a copy of these instructions with the Notice of Hearing and file Proof of Service with the Clerk reflecting such service.

 Case participants SHALL have their camera on during the proceeding, dressed appropriately, and have themselves properly identified on their computer screen ******

NOTE: If a participant fails to appear remotely, by phone or in person, and/or fails to file an answer/responsive pleading with the allotted time, a default or an ex parte Order may be entered against that party.

Important Information:

Participants are responsible for accessing and joining the proceeding. The Court will not contact participants.
