

JUDGE TAWNYA FRIOLI
ZOOM HEARING INSTRUCTIONS

When a matter is set by the Court for a remote video hearing, including attorneys and self-represented litigants, shall appear at the remote hearing by Zoom or by telephone. The party noticing up the hearing must provide a copy of these instructions with the Notice of Hearing and file proof of service.

If the Court permits a witness to be present for a hearing via Zoom or by telephone, the party requesting the witness' remote presence shall provide the witness with a copy of these instructions and the date/time of the hearing to ensure timely login.

Any person who wishes to participate in a hearing but is unable to do so by Zoom or telephone is required to appear at the Courthouse at the date and time for the hearing and comply with all face covering and social distancing requirements.

If a participant fails to appear remotely or in person, the Court will assume the participant has no objection to the pending motion and may enter a default or default judgment.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

Zoom is a free video conferencing platform and can be accessed by computer, landline, or other telephone, as well as through a Zoom app for smartphones.

Participants are responsible for accessing and joining the proceeding. The Court will not contact participants.
