

In The Circuit Court
For The Seventh Judicial Circuit of Illinois
Sangamon County, Springfield, Illinois

(Plaintiff)

vs.

(Defendant)

Case No. _____

JUDGMENT OF DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE - By publication

The matter is before this Court on Plaintiff's Petition for Dissolution of Marriage. Plaintiff is present in person, pro se. The Defendant has been served by publication, a copy of which has been filed with the Clerk of the Court for Sangamon County. Testimony heard. Based upon the testimony this Court finds and Orders as follows:

1. This Court has jurisdiction, the Plaintiff having resided in Illinois for more than 90 days preceding the date of this Order. The Plaintiff resides in Sangamon County.
2. Date of marriage: _____
3. Location of Marriage: _____ where the marriage was registered.
4. Date of Separation: _____
5. Living children born or adopted to the marriage with their date of birth.
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
6. No other children have been born or adopted by this marriage, and to the best of her knowledge the wife _____ is _____ is not pregnant by the husband.
7.
 - Irreconcilable differences have caused the irretrievable breakdown of the marriage without cause or provocation by either party. The parties have attempted to reconcile those differences, without success, and future attempts to reconcile those differences would not be in the best interests of the family unit.
 - The Defendant has been guilty of extreme and repeated acts of mental cruelty, without cause or provocation on the part of the Plaintiff.

The court therefore ORDERS as follows:

The marriage of the Plaintiff and Defendant is dissolved. This is a final judgment reserving ruling on children, support, maintenance, and property.

The Plaintiff is entitled to return to her former name of _____
